“ The Finland Phenomenon ”

Inside the World’s Most Surprising School System

Finland’s education system has consistently ranked among the best in the world. The puzzle is, what are they doing in Finland? The result of research into this question is captured in this film. In Finland there are no standardized tests. Finnish teachers are not monitored or rated based on test scores, and teachers (as well as their students) have a great deal of autonomy. It is a system built on trust. (DVD can also be bought at www.2mminutes.com )
