"THE HOUSE I LIVE IN"
Grand Jury Prize Winner for Documentaries at the 2012 SUNDANCE FILM FESTIVAL

Forty years of the War on Drugs and 45 million arrests have made America the world’s largest jailer, and damaged lives at home and abroad. Yet for all that, drugs are cheaper, purer, and more available today than ever before. Its failure continues to have profound human rights implications despite persistent moral, economic, and practical evidence.
