“TAKE BAKE YOUR POWER”
- Investigates the “smart” meter program being implemented worldwide by major utility companies.

These devices are not mandatory, but they are being installed without the consent of homeowners or even local governments.

Interviews with whistleblower EDWARD SNOWDEN, former CIA Director JAMES WOOLSEY, former senior NSA director THOMAS DRAKE, former Premier of British Columbia BILL VANDER ZALM, and many others provide a deep understanding of the corporate political and economic forces behind the “smart” meter-agenda.

You’ll find resources and proven solutions for protecting yourself, your family, your home, and your right
