FRIDAY JUNE 17, 2011, 7-9:30 PM

Film: “THE LORD IS NOT ON TRIAL HERE TODAY” - THE STORY OF HOW SEPARATION OF CHURCH AND STATE IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS BEGAN IN AMERICA (57 min, Jay Rosenstein, 2011)

THE LORD IS NOT ON TRIAL HERE TODAY a Peabody Award-winning documentary that tells the compelling personal story behind one of the most important and landmark First Amendment cases in U.S. Supreme Court history, McCollum vs. Board of Education, the case that set the foundation for the separation of church and state in public schools. The decision still resonates in the church-state conflicts of today, 60 years after the original decision. Followed by facilitated community discussion.

(Event is FREE and open to the public! ...but Donations are kindly accepted).

FRIDAY JUNE 24, 2011, 7-9:30 PM

Film: “WILLIAM KUNSTLER: DISTURBING THE UNIVERSE”

(85 min, Emily Kunstler, Sarah Kunstler & Jesse Moss, 2009)

An intimate biography of one of the most beloved, and hated, lawyers in America.

The man who had marched with Martin Luther King, Jr., and who had defended the Chicago 8 anti-war protestors, Native American activists at Wounded Knee and prisoners caught up in the Attica prison rebellion was now seen kissing the cheek of a Mafia client and defending an Islamic fundamentalist charged with assassinating a rabbi, terrorists accused of bombing the World Trade Center and a teenager charged in a near-fatal gang rape. Followed by facilitated community discussion.

(Event is FREE and open to the public! ...but Donations are kindly accepted).

FRIDAY JULY 1, 2011, 7-9:30 PM

Film: “PHIL OCHS: THERE BUT FOR FORTUNE” (96 min, Kenneth Bowser, 2010)

Much like his contemporaries Bob Dylan and Joan Baez, Phil Ochs is emblematic of America in the 60s. More than just a folk singer, Ochs helped to infuse popular music with a political perspective, rallying the like-minded and challenging the status quo. a vivid and compelling portrait of an icon of the 60s whose life was cut tragically short.

(Event is FREE and open to the public! ...but Donations are kindly accepted).
